

Dear BCCG members and friends of Scotland,

A Burns Supper is a traditional evening celebrating the life, works and spirit of the great Scottish poet Robert Burns (1759 – 1796). Burns Suppers have been in existence for over 200 years, and there are probably more taking place now than at any time in their history. They are a unique phenomenon: the celebration of the life and work of a poet by companies, societies, schools and families across the globe. No other poet is celebrated as Robert Burns is. He has over 1,000 clubs and societies dedicated to him; his books have been translated 3,000 times into more than 50 languages.

The Rhine-Main region began holding its traditional Burns Supper five years ago in Frankfurt, and in 2014, when Robert Burns would have turned 255, we are pleased to celebrate the famous Scottish bard's birthday once again.

We would be delighted if you could join us.

Date: Saturday 18th January 2014
Time: 7pm
Place: Freimaurerloge zur Einigkeit, Kaiserstraße 37,
60329 Frankfurt am Main

We are very pleased that RBS and Scottish Development International have again agreed to be the principal sponsors for the event this year.

For a contribution of € 50 per person for BCCG members and € 60 per person for non-members we will provide you with a three-course supper including soup, haggis and dessert, as well as plenty of Scotch whisky. You can also expect bagpipes, Scottish dancing and recitations of well-loved Burns poems to keep you entertained.

We would ask that the laddies (gentlemen) appear in formal evening dress (Black Tie / Smoking), traditional Scottish national dress, or a dark suit. Lassies (ladies) should wear an evening gown or cocktail dress. Please ensure that your shoes are appropriate for dancing in.

Please register online under (www.bccg.de/BCCG_12/Events.html) or use the attached registration form to confirm that you are attending and return it to us via fax by 3rd January 2014 at the latest.

Kindest regards

Susan Tackenberg
