Your Options of Membership

Regular BCCG Membership

Membership categories for professionals and companies are based on the number of employees. Reduced fees apply to newly established companies (start-ups), to members of Young BCCG, students and senior citizens.

Sponsoring Membership

We offer and recommend considering a „Sponsoring Membership“. With a Sponsoring Membership, you will additionally reap the benefits of:

- First option for co-operation and commercial partnership at events
- Invitation to the annual Sponsoring Members Dinner in Berlin by H.E. The British Ambassador to Germany
- Special invitations to e.g. for VIP events of members/third parties where ticket numbers are restricted
- Priority placements of advertisements and PR articles in BCCG publications
- Inclusion in expert groups by personal nomination, e.g. for Government Relations Committee and our Industry Expert Groups

Young BCCG

A number of members under the age of 40 years have opted to form the subgroup Young BCCG. Members can register in this group which organises special events targeted to a younger audience or apply for YBCCG membership. Young BCCG searches for new ideas in corporate and public bilateral organisations and trade.

Your Advantages of Membership

1. Bilateral Trade and Business Organisation

The BCCG is offering the largest British-German business and institutional network with about 600 members and more than 5.000 personal active contacts.

2. Networking Opportunities

The BCCG offers personal contacts in all industrial and service sectors as well as political and other trade organisations. We are supporting the dialogue through an abundance of networking opportunities in all regions through over 100 annual content-driven conferences and high-class events utilising member expertise and other contacts.

3. Policies and Special Themes

BCCG supports its members' interests by maintaining political contacts in Germany and the UK. BCCG Industry Expert Groups discuss and advise on a variety of relevant economic issues members and stakeholders of the BCCG.

4. SHeconomy

SHeconomy addresses the female business community. Worldwide, the number of women in politics and economy is rising. With our new SHeconomy series we have established a communication platform for exchanging ideas and discussing innovative approaches of economic and political themes. Furthermore, we support committed women in extending their network.

5. Business Knowledge and Communications

BCCG offers business guidance through publications of PR and professional articles, press releases and advertising in its publications, via our social media channels, the e-News Updates as well as on the BCCG Website.

6. BCCG Organisation

The BCCG offers assistance by answering daily enquiries and establishing relevant contacts. Besides the management office in Berlin, the BCCG is represented throughout Germany and the UK with twelve honorary regional committees to meet local needs and requirements.

7. BCCG Foundation

The BCCG supports bilateral education projects through the BCCG Foundation, a charity under German law. It collaborates with AIESEC and support the exchange of interns between the two countries by identifying internships with our partner companies and taking over the program fees for participating interns/students. The focus is on students/recent graduates with degrees in business, economics, IT, engineering, and law.
